

CREATURES

VERSION 5.0

The Wasteland is full of mutated and belligerent Creatures that survive and thrive in the post-nuclear ruins of the world. Some group together by species and hive, others are wielded like a hammer by individuals with high-tech controlling systems. Waves of chittering radroaches overwhelm the foe; Deathclaw smash and rend even the toughest armor; Radscorpions and molerats emerge from burrows to bite and sting. No matter the attack, when a group of creatures enters combat the results are close, bloody, and savage.
